

If You Are Here to Drop Off Student Bird Art Contest Entries

Be advised that the Arcata Marsh Interpretive Center has been CLOSED until further notice.

The City of Arcata does not want to use City Hall as a drop-off location.

Therefore, the only way to enter at this point in time is to mail entries to Sue Leskiw, 155 Kara Lane, McKinleyville CA 95519.

Art that already has been dropped off here has been collected by the contest organizer.

The original March 20 deadline for receipt of artwork has been extended until Monday, April 13.

If at all possible, Friends of the Arcata Marsh and Redwood Region Audubon Society wish to continue with the contest. However, the co-sponsors reserve the right to postpone the contest.

Because the Godwit Days festival will not be held this April, changes have been made to the usual procedures:

- » We will be unable to display all the entries at the Arcata Community Center.
- » There will be no awards ceremony.
- » Copies of winning artwork will be displayed at the Arcata Marsh Interpretive Center during May and June (assuming that the center is re-opened).
- » Winners will be featured on the FOAM and RRAS websites later this spring.
