

17th Annual Student Nature Writing Contest

Sponsored by Redwood Region Audubon Society

Up to 6 cash prizes to be awarded to the best essay(s) or poem(s) by Humboldt or Del Norte County students in Grades 4-12
on “What Nature Means to Me”

All cash prize and honorable mention winners will be published in a downloadable booklet posted on the RRAS website (www.rras.org). First-place winners also will be published in the Chapter’s Sandpiper newsletter.

Entries should be no more than 450 words in length; one entry per student. Topics suitable for exploration include, but are not limited to, bird feeding, duck hunting, animal rescue, and observations of the natural world. First-person accounts are preferred.

Entries submitted by individuals must include student name, school name, grade, and student e-mail and phone number.

Entries submitted by teachers must include student name, school name, grade, teacher name, and teacher e-mail and phone number.

Deadline for receipt: Friday, March 18, 2022.

Send submissions to sueleskiw1@gmail.com with “Nature Writing Contest” in the Subject line. Submissions can be text within the body of an e-mail or an attached Word document (no Google docs, please!).

Or mail a printout to Sue Leskiw, 155 Kara Lane, McKinleyville CA 95519.
